

Calendar

Labor Day

Monday, September 5th

The rental office will be closed in observance of this holiday.

For many, Labor Day marks the end of summer and the beginning of the school year but this holiday is a celebration of works of all sorts.

The day is dedicated to the American worker who puts in long hours dedicated to preserving a way of life by selflessly endeavoring to promote the prosperity and growth of a nation proudly, through their efforts.

RECERTIFICATION

Recertification has begun. If you have not scheduled your appointment with Mrs. April Merrill now is the time! This is a mandatory requirement for each household member to ensure we receive full funding of the building. Please note the following are required:

- Recertification questionnaire
- Proof of income (6 consecutive paystubs, award letters from SSI,SS, pension, self employment, TANF, alimony/child support, educational status, etc.)
- Assets (Checking, savings, money market, bonds, 401K plan, other retirement accounts, house, CD's, etc.)
- Birth Certificates, photo identification and social security cards for all household member.

Safety Warning

It has been reported that individuals are damaging the front entry door by placing the rug in the door frame and items in the door latch.

Please note: any individual found violating the safety of Dahlgreen residents will be prosecuted to the fullest and responsible for repayment to Management for damages assessed to property. Residents, please remind your guests of the rules at Dahlgreen, and remember you are fully responsible for your guests' actions.

INTERESTING SEPTEMBER DATES

- ▶ German troops invaded Poland, starting World War II in Europe, September 1, 1939.
- ▶ U.S. Department of the Treasury established, September 2, 1789.
- ▶ Japan's surrender in World War II first celebrated as Victory over Japan (V-J) Day, September 2, 1945.
- ▶ First Labor Day celebrated as a legal public holiday, September 3, 1894.
- ▶ Great Britain signed Treaty of Paris, ending the Revolutionary War in America, September 3, 1783.
- ▶ California became the 31st state, September 9, 1850.
- ▶ Elias Howe patented his sewing machine, September 10, 1846.
- ▶ Russians launched first rocket to the moon, September 12, 1959.
- ▶ Francis Scott Key wrote "The Star-Spangled Banner" during the attack on Fort McHenry, September 14, 1814.
- ▶ Mary Ann Fischer of Aberdeen, S.D., gave birth to four girls and a boy, the first surviving quintuplets in the United States, September 14, 1963.
- ▶ Pilgrims sailed from England in the Mayflower, September 16, 1620.
- ▶ Constitution of the United States signed, September 17, 1787.

Birthdays

Tymier Harris
Damonte Mack

If we missed your birthday, we apologize and we will give notice in October.

in the Community

Black Family Reunion

Saturday, September 10th, 8am to 8:30pm, on the Washington National Mall.

The National Council of Negro Women will celebrate their 26th Anniversary Black Family Reunion “One Day Mega Festival” in Washington, DC. This multi-cultural event celebrates the enduring strengths and traditional values of African American Family. Enjoy a free concert featuring R&B and Gospel artists Faith Evans, Miguel, DJ kid Capri, and Hezekiah Walker. For more information visit www.ncnw.org/events/reunion.htm or call 202-737-0120.

Hispanic Heritage Month

September is Hispanic Heritage Month. This celebration is the anniversary of independence for Costa Rica, El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua, Mexico and Chile. The Latino Festival in Washington DC, known as Fiesta DC, will celebrate with a Parade of Nations, a children’s festival, a science fair, arts, and international cuisine in the Columbia Heights neighborhood on Mt. Pleasant St, NW between Argonne Pl. and Park Rd. on Saturday, September 25th, from 12pm – 3:30pm. For more information visit www.fiestadc.org

Dog Lovers

The Langdon Dog Park Association is happy to announce that the Langdon Dog Park is now open! The dog park is located in Langdon Park behind the basketball courts at 2901 20th Street, NE (20th and Franklin Street, NE). For more information visit www.langdondogpark.org.

9/11 Commemoration

This year marks the 10th year anniversary of the September 11th terrorist attack. In honor of the victims of that tragic day Washington DC will hold several events to commemorate those lost and affected by the 9/11 attack. Below is a schedule of events that will be celebrated:

The Washington National Cathedral will present a three-day event entitled “A Call of Compassion.” For more information call 202-537-6200 or visit www.nationalcathedral.org.

Friday, September 9th 7:30PM – 9:30PM

“A Concert of Honor” featuring Brahms’ Requiem

Saturday, September 10th 1:00PM – 3:00PM

“A Concert to Heal” community gathering free public concert featuring local artist and music.

Smithsonian National Museum of American History

September 11th, 11AM – 3PM

Will display exhibits and close up views of more than 50 objects from the three locations (New York, Pentagon, and Shanksville, PA) affected by 9/11. For more information contact 202-357-2700 or visit www.americanhistory.si.edu